Glassworkers Home.

A number of Wheeling glassworkers, employed away from town, have returned home to spend the holidays. Findlay and Fosteria send the largest delegations. From the former place have come Michael and Thomas Owens, Theodore Schultz and Henry Eitner. Fos-toria has sent Willie Hughes, Will Tracy and Charley Flood. Will Pritchard, from Muncie, Ind., is also paying his friends a visit.

Enlarging Their Facilities.

Work has been begun on a large addition to the factory of the Caldwell & Petersen Manufacturing Company on South street. It will be in the form of an additional story on the building, sixty-six by one hundred feet, and built of brick and iron. The Klieves Kraft Company has the contract. This enlargement shows a growth of this important industry which all will be glad to see.

Yesterday's Police Court.

In the police court yesterday Frank Moran was fined $1 and costs for being drunk, but was let go on paying the costs. John Morray was assessed the same amount, but the fine was remitted on his promise to leave the State at once. The man Slater, who was arrested for disorderly conduct, was dismissed at the cost of the complainant.
Clark Fee still being under the weather Clerk Hanke, of the First branch of Council, served for him.

In the Circuit Court.

Yesterday in the circuit court the appeal case of the John Church company vs. William Fox was tried to a jury, which returned a verdict for the defendant. The plaintiff entered a motion for a new trial. The last case of Lina Cox vs. Joseph V. Purcell was then put on trial, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Purcell was sentenced to pay to the girl $50 per year for seven years, and required to give bond in the sum of $100 to perform this order of the court, or in default of the bond go to jail.

More Christmas Weddings.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued marriage licenses to the following named parties:
J. Clarence Duffy, aged thirty-one, born at Washington, D. C., and Mary Rebecca Allen, aged twenty-one, born at Shelbyville, Ky.

George Cooper, aged thirty-three, a native of Pleasant county, and Mary Donley, aged thirty-three, a native of Jackson county, both now of Wheeling.
Elbridge James Dixon, aged forty, of Mannington, and Mary Henderson, aged thirty, of Washington, Pa., both colored.

Shut Down for the Holidays.

All the manufacturing establishments on the South Side have shut down and will close to-day for Christmas and the holidays.

The LaBelle iron works will be shut down to-day, and at three o'clock Saturday morning the new roller crew will go on.

The Wheeling and the LaBelle potter-ies have been closed for several days and will remain shut down until after New Year's. The potters insist on enjoying the holidays, and no work can be got out of them during that time.

The pressing department of the Hobbs glass works discontinued operations yesterday, and the factory will remain idle for two weeks for the purpose of taking stock.

Dloch Bros.' tobacco factory worked until Wednesday evening. It will remain idle for more than a week, as work will not be resumed until Monday, January 4.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate. daw

FOUND HIM IN WHEELING.

The Missing Heir to a Large Estate in New York State Goes Home for Christmas.
A few days ago a man who said his name was John A. Givens applied at police headquarters for assistance. He said he was sick and had no money and he wanted to telegraph to his home at Cortland, N. Y., for funds. He said his father was a wealthy resident of that place, and the only reason he had not asked his assistance sooner was that he had left home against his father's wish and had squandered a good deal of money and was ashamed of himself.
For some reason Officer Willie took stock in his story and lent him enough money to get something to eat, and also accompanied him to the Western Union telegraph office, where Givens sent a telegram to T. J. Parsons, of Cortland, asking for $25. An answer came, but the man did not call for it. In a few days Willie met him, and he had got the money and he paid what he had borrowed. Yesterday Mr. Parsons came to Wheeling and informed Mr.
Givens that his father was dead and had left about $250,000 to him, Parsons being his executor.

Givens was fitted out with respectable clothes, and after dinner at the McLure house he and Mr. Parsons left for home. Mr. Givens was anxious to be in the halls of his ancestors for his Christmas dinner.

The following telegram printed in the New York World of Wednesday tells the Cortland end of Mr. Givens's story:

CORTLAND, N. Y., Dec. 22.—John A.
Givens, the missing heir to an estate of $200,000 to $250,000, has been heard from. Yesterday a telegram was received by H. B. Hubbard, the executor of the estate, from Wheeling, W. Va.
It was signed John A. Givens, and requested that $50 be forwarded the sender. This was done at once.

For some time Givens has been mourned as dead. He was a member of one of the best families in Cortland county, and his relatives include such well known people as the Squires, Schermerhorns, Wickwires and Fitzgeralds. His father was Amos A. Givens, one of the town's pioneer merchants. He died in 1879. At his death his property went to his widow and at her death to John, the sole heir.

By the will the executor has sole power until John became of age. In October, 1880, John attained his majority. He then expressed a desire to travel, and on April 15 last he started for California. His baggage consisted of a small hand-satchel, a large trunk and a banjo encased in a sole-leather covering. On his trip he was heard from at Suspension Bridge, Chicago and Denver, and last at the Brooklyn House, in San Francisco. His last letter was received April 27.

From this time until yesterday he was buried in seclusion. At San Francisco he disappeared suddenly. He was supposed by some to have been killed and his body hidden, while others believed that he had been abandoned. His trunk at the depot remained uncalled for and in his room at the hotel were his banjo and banjo. He had over $1,000 with him, besides jewelry valued at double this amount. The police all over the country were notified.

Mr. Hubbard, the executor, said today: "I believe the boy has been to sea, but further than that I am not at liberty to say. I may tell more by and by. I have sent the money asked for, and I believe it was Givens, though I may be deceived. How he came to be in Wheeling I do not know."

A STREET MASQUERADER

Dents a Boy a Terrible Blow on the Forehead and Is Arrested.

Mike Christ is one of those men who think it's funny to go along the street in masquerade costume. Last night he and a friend were perambulating East Wheeling clad in outlandish style and attracting considerable attention, as they fondly hoped they would. A crowd of boys followed the circus up street and began gawking the performers.
Admiration was what Christ wanted, and when he told the boys to desist from making fun of him and his partner, the boys became more aggressively demonstrative. Christ became angry, and striking at the boys with a cane, hit young Nelson Laurel on the forehead. The boy fell and was taken home. A physician was summoned and put a half dozen stitches in the boy's forehead. Christ was arrested by Officer Carney.
